Re: WCDC 2020 Budget

Attached, you will find a number of documents related to the WCDC 2020 Budget. This budget will be discussed and hopefully adopted at the August 20th meeting.

The first document is a detailed breakdown of FY2019 year-end projections and FY2020 recommendations. You will notice that is document is broken down by revenues and then departmental expenses. The figures to the far right represent the recommended budget for next year. These figures include a "continuation budget" to maintain existing service levels as well the proposed "enhancements".

These "enhancements" can appear in a number of ways. The following two (colored) documents outline the additions to existing service levels. Many of the smaller value increases are shown on the Service Enhancement sheet. These can either be new requests brought forward during the budget process or be a part of the Civic Center and Sports Complex Capital Replacement Program. If you recall, this program was developed several years ago to better forecast upcoming expenses that generally known to maintain WCDC assets.

The third page (also colored) represents larger capital and operating expenses that are a part of the City's five year plans. This includes large one-time expenses (such as a large piece of equipment) as well as on-going costs (such as added personnel).

All recommended enhancements have been included in the detailed budget provided. We will be providing a more general overview of the 4B Fund at the meeting, but I wanted to provide you all this information in advance for your review.

I have also included for your information the Hotel-Motel/Convention and Visitor's Bureau budget. And while WCDC does not formally adopt this budget, it routinely hears updates and entertains CVB-related requests. You can also see the various marketing initiatives anticipated for the coming year.

I look forward to seeing you at 3pm on the 20th.

Texas Country Reporter Festival - October 26; 9 am-7 pm

ADVERTISING, PR & MEDIA UPDATES

- The CVB's website (www.waxahachiecvb.com) homepage received a refresh. Most users would not notice much because it still functions the same way, same colors, etc. It just features larger images which is where websites have been trending since 2018.
- Meat Church continues to help generate positive publicity for Waxahachie:

Dallas Observer article - https://www.dallasobserver.com/restaurants/how-meat-church-turned- its-viral-barbecue-rubs-into-a-new- waxahachie-storefront-11689664

A digital news bundle produced by WFAA will launch on August 12 featuring Matt Pittman, Meat Church and Downtown Waxahachie that is sponsored by Cadillac. The series is called "Shaping DFW." Promos will run on WFAA, then pushed out digitally across all platforms.

Also, on July 30, the BBQ editor from Texas Monthly, Daniel Vaughn, toured Waxahachie with Matt and tweeted photos from the trip which automatically sent people into Harris BBQ to order the sandwich that they tweeted a pic of.

- We were notified that D Magazine will include the Texas Country Reporter Festival in an article about Fall Festivals in their September issue.
- Articles from our Visit DFW Marketing Co-op:
 10 DFW ice Cream Shops to Try This Summer

Cheers to Local Beer: Find a DFW Brewery that Fits Your Sippin' Style This article was linked to a "Craft Brewery Bracket Battle" where Railport Brewery made it to the Final 2 in DFW. This was an Instagram contest, which helped boost followers on the Visit Waxahachie Instagram page.

The CVB now has an Instagram account with 974 followers and counting. The Visit Waxahachie,
 Texas Facebook page has 11,593 fans.

OTHER NEWS

One of the most exciting things that happened over the past month is that our CVB team has grown with the addition of our new Cultural Arts & Programming Manager – Kelly Skistimas. She hit the ground running on July 1 just in time for the Crape Myrtle Festival and has not looked back.

Please look for Railyard Park Waxahachie on Facebook and Instagram for all of the fun and excitement that Kelly and the community are already generating.

With the facilitation and guidance of Bob Lynn, Kelly, Amy and Laurie have been working with a graphics designer on a logo for Railyard Park. More details to come on the project next month.
